How have you responded when asked to serve on a Board or Committee here at Divine Savior? What has been your thought when the time came every year for Christmas decorating or the Church Work Day? When the encouragement was given by God's Word to give generously of time, talent, and treasure, what did you do? If you've ever had the thought that Someone Else could do this instead of you, repent of your sin, rejoice in God's free forgiveness in Christ, and joyfully go about the various vocations He's called you to do. Pastor Wehmeyer

Death in the ## CHURCH FAMILY

Our church was saddened to learn of the death of one of our most valued members: Someone Else. Someone's passing creates a vacancy that will be difficult to fill. Else has been with us for many years, and for every one of those years, Someone did far more than a normal person's share of the work.

Whenever there was a job to do, a class to teach, offerings needed, or a meeting to attend, one name was on everyone's list, "Let Someone Else do it." Whenever leadership was mentioned, this wonderful person was looked to for inspiration as well as results; "Someone Else can work with that group." It was common knowledge that Someone Else was among the most liberal givers in our church. Whenever there was a financial need, everyone just assumed Someone Else would make up the difference.

Someone Else was a wonderful person; sometimes appearing super human. Were the truth known, everybody expected too much of Someone Else. Now Someone Else is gone. We wonder what we are going to do.

Someone Else left a wonderful example to follow, but who is going to follow it? Who is going to do the things Someone Else did? When you are asked to help this year, remember - we can't depend on Someone Else anymore.
