

Church Council

Highlights

Meeting of August 5th

Chairman: Jim Danner led a brief discussion on the parking lot, reminding the Council of two bids that had been received for repairs/repaving. The Council will consider taking action at the next Council meeting. The Council also discussed our insurance and the possibility of adding riders for items such as the stained-glass and the organ.

Treasurer's Report: Margaret McCloskey reviewed the written report. After the meeting, it was discovered the report was incorrect. The updated numbers were not available at the time of printing this newsletter.

Financial Secretary: No report.

Elders: Confirmation Classes resume on Wednesday, August 29.

Trustees: It was reported that some of the sprinklers need adjusted. Discussion took place regarding the shed and the need to fix the leak, insulate it, and run electricity to it. The trustees will meet and prioritize the needs.

Evangelism: Doug Weir reported that the Committee had met in July. Coffee cups with the church name and contact information on them were distributed to local restaurants for use. The Committee is hoping to participate in the Devine Fall Festival this year. The "Every One His Witness" evangelism program will begin soon here at Divine Savior.

Stewardship: Robert Cappella reported that the committee is looking into electronic giving through Vanco. More details will be gathered.

Human Care: No report.

Fellowship: Marla Cappella reported that approximately $70 was spent for the Organ Dedication reception. Plans were underway for the lunch for VBS, as well as the breakfast for Rally Day.

Christian Education: It was reported that Rally Day, on August 26, was being planned. The Sunday School rooms are being cleaned out and prepared for the new Sunday School year. In coordination with the Trustees, the Committee will be prioritizing the spaces needed for Sunday School.

Gift of Hope: Robert Cappella reported that the Golf Tournament has been set for Saturday, September 22, at 11:00 a.m. at the Hondo Golf Course. Hole Sponsors and prize sponsors are needed.

Pastor: Pastor Wehmeyer reviewed his written report which included Family Care, Official Acts, and the latest Church Statistics.
